

Vacancy for Accounts Semi Senior – AAT/ACCA study support

McCabe Ford Williams, Maidstone

Salary: £18,000 – £26,000 per annum, negotiable depending on experience

Part Time considered

Job Description

Our busy Maidstone office is seeking an Accounts Semi Senior to join their expanding team. This is a wide-ranging and hands-on role providing a great opportunity to 'showcase' your all round skills. Duties will include preparing accounts and tax returns, together with undertaking other general accountancy practice responsibilities on behalf of our clients. Clients of our Maidstone office hail from a wide range of industries and sectors and vary in both turnover and size from sole traders, partnerships and limited companies.

McCabe Ford Williams is currently undergoing positive growth with plans for future development and expansion.

For the right candidate this position provides the opportunity for genuine progression and development.

What we are looking for

The successful applicant will be an ACA/ACCA trainee, an ATT trainee or AAT qualified, or Qualified by Experience and working as an Accounts Semi Senior with a background in accountancy practice. You will have at least 2-4 years' experience within the practice sector preparing accounts and bookkeeping for a mixed client base of sole traders, partnerships and limited companies with tax experience considered a bonus, but by no means essential.

You will be looking for a challenging, long-term career move within a genuinely growing and expanding firm of chartered accountants, offering progression and career development.

What's on offer?

£18,000 - £26,000
Parking
Study support

About McCabe Ford Williams

Established in 1936, we are one of the leading accountancy, auditors, taxation, business services and insolvency firms in Kent. With six offices located across the county, we are ideally located to offer professional advice not only to clients in Kent but also to those in London, the South East and further afield.

Whilst we are proud of our strong heritage and history, we also believe in looking forward and never resting on our laurels. Today, McCabe Ford Williams is a modern and thriving firm offering many more services than the typical accountancy, tax and audit services you might expect.

Our firm has 14 Partners and over 130 staff all dedicated to providing you with the best possible level of service. With the skill set of a larger London based firm, we have all the necessary knowledge, experience and expertise you will ever need, without the associated high City costs.
