Community minded

The 100th anniversary of the outbreak of the First World War coupled with the prominent 70th D-D anniversary commemorations have reminded all of us of the debt we owe to previous generations. Coverage in particular of the D-Day anniversary has made us aware of the human suffering and personal losses as well. In this issue we also look at the financial costs of war and just how our country funded 'the war effort', on page 8.

The remarkable community spirit which the British public has displayed time and time again through periods of adversity has inspired this issue and now we take a look at other people that are doing some pretty amazing things themselves.
