

PROVISION OF SERVICES REGULATIONS SUMMARY SHEET August 2021

The following information is designed to draw the attention of interested parties to the information required to be disclosed by the Provision of Services Regulations 2009.

Licensing Body

Amanda Ireland and Alison Collier are licensed to act as Insolvency Practitioners in the United Kingdom by the Insolvency Practitioners Association.

Amanda Ireland is a fellow of the Insolvency Practitioners Association (FIPA) and Alison Collier is a member of the Insolvency Practitioners Association (MIPA). mfw Insolvency & Corporate Recovery is also a firm member of the Insolvency Practitioners Association.

Rules Governing Actions

All IPs are bound by the rules of their professional body, including any that relate specifically to insolvency. The rules of the professional Insolvency Practitioners Association body that licences Amanda Ireland and Alison Collier of mfw Insolvency & Corporate Recovery can be found here.

In addition, IPs are bound by the Statements of Insolvency Practice (SIPs), details of which can be found here.

Ethics

All IPs are required to comply with the Insolvency Code of Ethics and a copy of the Code can be found here.

Complaints

At mfw Insolvency & Corporate Recovery we always strive to provide a professional and efficient service. However, we recognise that it is in the nature of insolvency proceedings for disputes to arise from time to time. As such, should you have any comments or complaints regarding the administration of a particular case then in the first instance, you should contact the IP acting as office holder.

If you consider that the IP has not dealt with your comments or complaint appropriately you should then put details of your concerns in writing to our complaints officer Ian Pascall at McCabe Ford Williams, Charlton House, Dour Street, Dover, CT16 1BL. This will then formally invoke our complaints procedure and we will endeavour to deal with your complaint under the supervision of a senior partner unconnected with the appointment.

Most disputes can be resolved amicably either through the provision of further information or following negotiations. However, in the event that you have exhausted our complaints procedure and you are not satisfied that your complaint has been resolved or dealt with appropriately, you may complain to the regulatory body that licences the insolvency practitioner concerned. Any such complaints should be addressed to The Insolvency Service, IP Complaints, 3rd Floor, 1 City Walk, Leeds, LS11 9DA, and you can make a submission using an on-line form available at <https://www.gov.uk/complain-about-insolvency-practitioner>; or you can email insolvency.enquiryline@insolvency.gsi.gov.uk; or you may phone 0300 678 0015. Information on the call charges that apply is available here.
